

THE GOLDEN GATE SOCIETY FOR COATINGS TECHNOLOGY

THE ALFRED APFEL AND ROBERT MINUCCIANNI SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Scholarship funds are available for tuition only for either students attending college or for coatings industry participants attending short courses.

ELIGIBILITY

Coatings Industry Participants . Industry participants who are currently employed in the coatings industry and who are members of the Golden Gate Society for Coatings Technology may apply for tuition for short courses or for tuition for college for continuing education.

College Students . Current college students or high school students about to attend college who are either student members of the Golden Gate Society for Coatings Technology or who are dependents of members of the GGSTC may apply for tuition for college.

Preference will be given to industry applicants and their dependents who are currently active in GGSTC meetings and volunteerism.

APPLICATION

Applicants must submit the following:

1. All Applicants - Official application form with a declaration of either a vocational interest or a current occupation that is viable to the coatings industry.
2. Students Entering College - official copies (no photocopies) of high school transcripts showing grades of all classes attended in all schools.
3. Current College Students - In addition to Requirement 2, submit transcripts of grades for all college classes taken to date.
4. All Students - A letter of 200-300 words describing past school and extracurricular activities, past work experience, and future career plans.
5. Coatings Industry Participants - A letter of 100-200 words describing why they want to take the short course.

DEADLINES

For short courses, applications are accepted throughout the year. Registration fees for the Western Coatings Symposium & Show and other technical shows will be included in the definition of a short course and eligible for a scholarship.

For college scholarships, the application and all supporting documentation must be submitted no later than September 15 for the current academic year.
